

Chris M. Egan

Shareholder

Raised in Sacramento, Chris worked his way through high school and college at numerous local businesses before becoming a lawyer. Chris now dedicates himself to representing local businesses large and small. Chris helps his clients achieve their goals through thoughtful analysis, determination, and courtesy to adversaries.

 (916) 929-1481  cegan@porterscott.com
 2180 Harvard Street | Suite 500 | Sacramento, CA 95815

OVERVIEW

Chris grew up in Sacramento, and he became a shareholder at Porter Scott in 2011. Chris's practice covers a wide variety of areas including directors and officers liability, catastrophic personal injury cases, construction defect cases, motor vehicle accidents, product liability, industrial injuries, liquor liability, premises liability, and wrongful death. He has represented business clients in complex cases involving wrongful termination, discrimination, defamation, breach of contract, and unfair business practices. Chris has also litigated disputes involving representation of insurance brokers, real estate brokers, and architects. His medical malpractice experience includes representation of hospitals, physicians, and nurses. Chris has litigated cases from Tulare County to Siskiyou County and everything in between.

EDUCATION

University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law (J.D., 2004)

- Dean's List (2003 – 2004)

PRACTICE AREAS

- Employment
- Business and Real Estate
- Construction
- Healthcare
- Personal Injury
- Premises Liability
- Products Liability
- Professional Liability

- All California State Courts
- United States District Court for the Eastern District of California