

Corey Watkins

Associate

Before attending law school, Corey spent years working in the grocery industry. Corey's favorite part of the job was talking and connecting with his customers. His view is that developing a personal relationship with people is essential to effectively anticipating and serving their needs. Corey carries those customer service skills over to serving his clients as a member of Porter Scott's medical malpractice group. When not in the office, Corey is likely rooting for his favorite local sports teams including the San Francisco Forty Niners, the San Francisco Giants, and the Sacramento Kings. Corey also visits nearby South Lake Tahoe any chance that he gets.
