

Jorge Casanova

Associate

A Bay Area native, Jorge has a deep appreciation of diversity and community which inspired him to pursue a career as an attorney. He believes that success stems from a solid foundation and trust with each of his clients. His first job was working in a local movie theater sweeping up popcorn between shows and he later worked at a paint store to put himself through college. During his free time, Jorge can be found playing fetch with his Labrador, going for a run along the American River, or rooting for his favorite bay area sports teams.
