

Morgan Gross

Associate

Morgan is a driven and persistent litigator who brings an approachable style to her legal practice. Known for her preparedness and attention to detail, Morgan handles each case with a genuine commitment to her client.

Morgan graduated summa cum laude with a B.A. in Political Science from California State University, Stanislaus, before earning her J.D. from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law. Morgan graduated law school with great distinction and was inducted into the prestigious Order of the Coif. While attending McGeorge, she developed her legal research, writing, and oral advocacy skills as a member of McGeorge's moot court team. Additionally, Morgan externed for the Honorable Jeremy D. Peterson of the Eastern District of California, further refining her research and writing skills.
