

Steven Weiss

Associate

Steven originally studied to be an actor at the acclaimed Tisch School of the Arts in New York City. Thereafter, he racked up several years of experience at every level of government. As a professionally trained actor, Steven understands that the most subtle nuance can make an immeasurable impact. Steven's practice focuses on employment law matters, where he advises clients with care at each step of the legal process.

When not at the office, Steven loves to read fantasy novels, take in the outdoors, and spend time with his lovely wife and two cats.
