

William Hallissy

Associate

Will began his career in London's financial hub, Canary Wharf, specializing in European Union financial regulatory compliance at a boutique consultancy. By day, he navigated intricate compliance frameworks; by night, he pursued a Business & Management degree. His inclination toward advocacy led him to law; while working as a Law Clerk, he attended law school classes in the evening, accumulating invaluable legal experience. As a lawyer at Porter Scott, Will leverages his relentless work ethic to zealously represent his clients.
