

Zachary Ayre

Associate

A Sacramento native, Zachary developed a strong desire to enter the legal field during his undergraduate studies at Sacramento State university, where he took several classes on criminal justice and Freedom of Speech. During law school, he participated in the Student Bar Association as the Vice President and developed valuable leadership, communication, and organizational skills. Now he uses these skills to effectively represent clients, delivering thorough and strategic tactics tailored to their needs.

Outside of the office, Zachary can be found exploring Sacramento's food scene, spending quality time with family, and traveling around California to any of the outdoor marvels within a few hours of the city.
